

grate great	The first-year student accidentally dropped their keycard into the rainwater grate by the SUB. Weyerhauser Hall has some great study spaces.
hear here	I hear that the view from the astronomy tower in Thompson is sight to behold. I've really made a home for myself here at Puget Sound.
hoard horde	I tend to hoard library books for my research papers right up until their due date. The horde of prospective students, parents, and family members glanced around excitedly as they followed the campus visit guide down Commencement Walk.
hole whole	The UPS Golf Team won the tournament by making a hole in one. I was so hungry, I ate the whole Cellar pizza by myself.
it's its	It's no wonder the school spends so much money on landscaping--the campus is beautiful! The University of Puget Sound is known for its beautiful landscaping.
isle aisle	Vashon Isle is a great place to go biking on the weekend. I perused the candy aisle in the Cellar in search of a late night snack.
know no	I know that my keys are around here somewhere. Actually, I have no idea where my keys are.
lessen lesson	To lessen my homework load, I plan on working on each assignment a bit every day before its due. The lesson on glycolysis offered a fascinating glimpse into the dynamics of the body's metabolic pathways.
levee levy	In 2011, boulders and gravel were hauled to bolster the Elwha River levee in preparation for the demolition of the Elwha and Glines Canyon dams later that year. In my government class, we learned about the tax levy as a federal mechanism for ensuring satisfaction of tax liability.
male mail	Male , female, trans, non-binary, and gender-nonconforming bathrooms are offered in many of the academic and residential buildings on campus. You can buy stamps, send, and receive mail in the mailroom in the SUB.
pallet palate palette	I didn't bring my bedframe when I moved to campus, so I was worried I might have to build one from wooden pallets . Luckily, the University supplied a bed in my room. After finishing a scrumptious garden tortellini dinner in the SUB, I cleaned my palate with a mango smoothie from the Cellar. The art major carefully arranged their color palette before beginning a new project in Kittridge.
passed past	"I need to call my mom to tell her that I passed my math class!" The past few years at UPS have been some of the best years of my life.
peace piece	I made peace with the fact that I would have to finish my homework in the morning. I got the last piece of pizza at the Cellar!
perspective prospective	Perspectives is a great way to become introduced to new perspectives in the Tacoma community. The prospective student asked the tour guide if the weather was always this sunny.
pore pour	The student pored over medieval manuscripts for their middle-ages history class. The baristas in Diversions and Oppenheimer artfully pour coffee for their customers.
