

class	“The calculus class is silent during the test.” “After the test, the class buy their celebratory smoothies at Diversions.”
jury	“The jury was late to the trial.” “The jury appear to be bored or sleeping during the trial; they keep yawning and nodding off.”
team	“The Puget Sound women’s soccer team has had a very successful season.” “This year, the women’s soccer team are going home to visit their families after their NCAA win.”
army	“The army trains thoroughly.” “The army return home after the war.” council	“The council votes in favor of the bill.” “The council disagree about which way to vote.” family	“My family is the best.” “My family are crazy.” group	“The group always leaves the room a mess.” “The group sing, dance, and act.” audience	“The audience applauds.” “The audience were hooting and hollering.” board	“The Board of Trustees is willing to hear students about fossil fuel divestment.” “The Board of Trustees have different opinions about divestment.”
crowd	“And the crowd goes wild!” “The crowd are running, jumping, and yelling.”